24 relationship as defined in KRS 456.010; and 25 (4) "Respondent" means the person identified in the petition filed pursuant to 26 Section 3 or 4 of this Act.

27 ➔SECTION 2. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 237 IS CREATED TO

1 READ AS FOLLOWS:

- 2 (1) A petitioner may seek a one (1) year extreme risk protection order by filing a 3 verified petition on a form prescribed by the Administrative Office of the Courts 4 in the District Court of the county where the respondent resides.
- 5 (2) The petition shall set forth the grounds for issuance of the order and shall 6 describe the number, types, and locations of any firearms or ammunition 7 presently believed by the petitioner to be possessed or controlled by the 8 respondent. The petition shall also name adults believed by the petitioner to be 9 living with the respondent as family or household members. The petition shall 10 also state whether there is an existing protective order in effect governing the 11 respondent and whether there is any pending lawsuit, complaint, petition, or 12 other action between the parties under the laws of this state. The court shall 13 verify the terms of any existing order governing the parties. The court may not 14 delay granting relief because of the existence of a pending action between the 15 parties or the necessity of verifying the terms of an existing order. A petition for 16 an extreme risk protection order may be granted whether or not there is a 17 pending action between the parties.
- 18 (3) All health records and other health information provided in a petition or 19 considered as evidence in a proceeding under Sections 1 to 11 of this Act shall be 20 protected from public disclosure to the extent they identify a respondent or 21 petitioner, except that such information may be provided to law enforcement 22 agencies as set forth in Section 8 of this Act. Aggregate statistical data about the 23 number of extreme risk protection orders issued, renewed, denied, dissolved, or 24 terminated shall be available to the public upon request.
- 25 (4) Upon receipt of the petition, the court shall set a date for a hearing within 26 fourteen (14) days, regardless of whether the court issues an ex parte extreme 27 risk protection order pursuant to Section 3 of this Act. Notice of the hearing shall 1 be personally served on the respondent by a law enforcement officer or, if 2 personal service by a law enforcement officer is not possible, in accordance with 3 the laws of this state regarding service of process. At the time of service, the 4 respondent shall be informed that he or she may request a hearing before a jury 5 by giving written notice to the court prior to the time of the hearing. If the court 6 does issue an ex parte extreme risk protection order pursuant to Section 3 of this 7 Act, notice of the hearing shall be served on the respondent with the ex parte 8 order.

9 (5) The Administrative Office of the Courts shall prescribe the form of the petitions 10 and orders and any other documents, and shall promulgate any rules of court, 11 necessary to implement this chapter.

13 READ AS FOLLOWS:

14 (1) A petitioner may request that an ex parte order be issued before a hearing for a 15 one (1) year extreme risk protection order, without notice to the respondent, by 16 including in the petition detailed allegations based on personal knowledge that 17 the respondent poses an immediate and present danger of causing serious 18 physical injury to self or others by owning, purchasing, possessing, receiving, or 19 having in his or her custody or control a firearm or ammunition.

20 (2) (a) The court shall issue or deny an ex parte extreme risk protection order on 21 the same day that the petition is submitted to the court, unless the petition is 22 filed too late in the day to permit effective review, in which case the order 23 shall be issued or denied on the next day of judicial business.

24 (b) Review of the request for an ex parte extreme risk protection order shall be 25 conducted by the court sitting without a jury.

26 (3) Before issuing an ex parte extreme risk protection order the court shall examine 27 under oath the petitioner and any witnesses the petitioner may produce. The 1 court may also:

2 (a) Ensure that a reasonable search has been conducted of available records to 3 determine whether the respondent owns any firearms or ammunition; and

4 (b) Ensure that a reasonable search has been conducted for criminal history 5 records related to the respondent.

6 (4) In determining whether grounds for an ex parte extreme risk protection order 7 exist, the court shall consider all relevant evidence presented by the petitioner, 8 and may also consider other relevant evidence, including but not limited to 9 evidence of facts relating to the respondent's:

10 (a) Unlawful, reckless, or negligent use, display, storage, possession, or 11 brandishing of a firearm;

12 (b) Act or threat of violence against self or another, whether or not this 13 violence involves a firearm;

14 (c) Violation of a protective order issued pursuant to KRS Chapter 403 or 456, 15 or similar laws in another state;

16 (d) Abuse of controlled substances or alcohol or any criminal offense that 17 involves controlled substances or alcohol; and 18 (e) The recent acquisition of firearms, ammunition, or other deadly weapons.

19 (5) The court shall also consider the time that has elapsed since the events 20 considered as evidence occurred.

21 (6) If a court finds reasonable cause to believe that the respondent poses an 22 immediate and present danger of causing serious physical injury to self or others 23 by owning, purchasing, possessing, receiving, or having in his or her custody or 24 control a firearm or ammunition, the court shall issue an ex parte extreme risk 25 protection order.

26 (7) An ex parte extreme risk protection order shall include:

27 (a) A statement that the respondent may not own, purchase, possess, receive, or

- 1           have in his or her custody or control, or attempt to purchase or receive, a 2           firearm or ammunition while the order is in effect;
- 3           (b) A description of the requirements for surrender or removal of firearms and 4           ammunition under Section 6 of this Act;
- 5           (c) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order;
- 6           (d) A notice of the hearing under subsection (4) of Section 2 of this Act to 7           determine whether to issue a one (1) year extreme risk protection order, 8           including the address of the court and the date and time when the hearing 9           is scheduled;
- 10          (e) A statement that at the hearing the court may extend the order for one (1) 11          year;
- 12          (f) A statement that the respondent may request a jury for the hearing by 13          giving written notice of the request to the court prior to the time set for the 14          hearing; and
- 15          (g) A statement that the respondent may seek the advice of an attorney as to any 16          matter connected with the order, and that the attorney should be consulted 17          promptly so that the attorney may assist the person in any matter connected 18          with the order.
- 19          (8) An ex parte extreme risk protection order shall be personally served on the 20          respondent by a law enforcement officer or, if personal service by a law
21          enforcement officer is not possible, in accordance with the laws of this state 22          regarding service of process.
- 23          (9) In accordance with subsection (4) of Section 2 of this Act, the court shall 24          schedule a hearing within fourteen (14) days of the issuance of an ex parte 25          extreme risk protection order to determine if a one (1) year extreme risk 26          protection order shall be issued. A respondent may seek an extension of time 27          before the hearing, or, if a respondent requests a jury, the court may extend the 1 time before the hearing in order to impanel a jury. The court shall dissolve any ex 2 parte extreme risk protection order in effect against the respondent when the 3 court holds the hearing.

5 READ AS FOLLOWS:

6 (1) A petitioner requesting a one (1) year extreme risk protection order shall include 7 in the petition detailed allegations based on personal knowledge that the 8 respondent poses a significant danger of causing serious physical injury to self or 9 others by owning, purchasing, possessing, receiving, or having in his or her 10 custody or control a firearm or ammunition.

11 (2) Before a hearing for a one (1) year extreme risk protection order, the court shall:

12 (a) Ensure that a reasonable search has been conducted of all available records 13 to determine whether the respondent owns any firearms or ammunition; 14 and

15 (b) Ensure that a reasonable search has been conducted for criminal history 16 records related to the respondent.

17 (3) (a) Proceedings shall be heard by a judge sitting without a jury unless the 18 respondent requests a hearing before a jury in writing prior to the time set 19 for the hearing.

20 (b) If a respondent requests a jury, the court may extend the time before the 21 hearing in order to impanel a jury, and any ex parte orders remain in effect 22 until the court holds the hearing.

23 (4) In determining whether to issue a one (1) year extreme risk protection order 24 under this section, the court, or the jury if one is impaneled, shall consider all 25 relevant evidence presented by the petitioner, and may also consider other 26 relevant evidence, including but not limited to evidence of the facts identified in 27 subsection (4) of Section 3 of this Act.

1 (5) If the court, or the jury if one is impaneled, finds by a clear and convincing 2 standard of evidence at the hearing that the respondent poses a significant 3 danger of serious physical injury to self or others by owning, purchasing, 4 possessing, receiving, or having in his or her custody or control a firearm or 5 ammunition, the court shall issue a one (1) year extreme risk protection order.

6 (6) A one (1) year extreme risk protection order issued pursuant to this section shall 7 include all of the following:

8 (a) A statement that the respondent shall not own, possess, purchase, receive, 9 or have in his or her custody or control, or attempt to purchase or receive, a 10 firearm or ammunition while the order is in effect;

11 (b) A description of the requirements for surrender or removal of firearms and 12 ammunition under Section 6 of this Act;

13 (c) A statement of the grounds supporting the issuance of the order;

14 (d) The date and time the order expires;

15 (e) The address of the court that issued the order;

16 (f) A statement that the respondent shall have the right to request one (1) 17 hearing to terminate the order at any time during its effective period; and 18 (g) A statement that the person may seek the advice of an attorney as to any 19 matter connected with the order.

20 (7) If the respondent fails to appear at the hearing, a one (1) year extreme risk 21 protection order issued pursuant to this section shall be personally served on the 22 respondent by a law enforcement officer or, if personal service by a law
23 enforcement officer is not possible, in accordance with the laws of this state 24 regarding service of process.

26 READ AS FOLLOWS:

27 (1) (a) A respondent to a one (1) year extreme risk protection order issued under

1           Section 4 of this Act may submit to the issuing court one (1) written request 2           at any time during the effective period of the order for a hearing before a 3           judge of the issuing court to terminate the order.

4           (b) Upon receipt of the request for termination, the court shall set a date for a 5           hearing. Notice of the request shall be served on the petitioner in 6           accordance with the laws of this state regarding service of process. The 7           hearing shall occur no sooner than fourteen (14) days from the date of 8           service of the request upon the petitioner.

9           (c) The respondent seeking termination of the order shall have the burden of 10           proving by a clear and convincing standard of evidence that the respondent 11           does not pose a significant danger of causing serious physical injury to self 12           or others by owning, purchasing, possessing, receiving, or having in his or 13           her custody or control a firearm or ammunition.

14           (d) Review of the request for termination shall be heard by the issuing court 15           sitting without a jury.

16           (e) If the judge finds after the hearing that the respondent has met his or her 17           burden, the court shall terminate the order.

18           (2) (a) A petitioner may request a renewal of a one (1) year extreme risk protection 19           order at any time within the three (3) months before the expiration of the 20           order.

21           (b) 1. Renewal proceedings for a one (1) year extreme risk protection order 22           shall be heard by a judge sitting without a jury unless the respondent 23           requests a hearing before a jury in writing prior to the time set for the 24           hearing.

25           2. If a respondent requests a jury, the court may extend the time before 26           the hearing in order to impanel a jury, and the existing one (1) year 27           extreme risk protection order shall remain in effect until the court

1                   holds the hearing.

2           (c) The court, or the jury if one is impaneled, may, after notice and a hearing, 3           renew a one (1) year extreme risk protection order issued under Sections 1 4           to 11 of this Act if the court or jury finds, by a clear and convincing 5           standard of evidence, that the respondent continues to pose a significant 6           danger of causing serious physical injury to self or another by owning, 7           purchasing, possessing, receiving, or having in his or her custody or control 8           a firearm or ammunition.

9           (c) In determining whether to renew a one (1) year extreme risk protection 10           order issued under this section, the court, or the jury if one is impaneled, 11           shall consider all relevant evidence presented by the petitioner, and may 12           also consider other relevant evidence, including but not limited to evidence 13           of the facts identified in subsection (4) of Section 3 of this Act.

14           (d) A one (1) year extreme risk protection order renewed pursuant to this 15           section shall expire after one (1) year, subject to termination by further 16           order of the court at a hearing held pursuant to subsection (1) of this 17           section and further renewal by order of the court pursuant to this 18           subsection.

20 READ AS FOLLOWS:

21           (1) Upon issuance of an ex parte or one (1) year extreme risk protection order, the 22           court shall:

23           (a) 1. Order the respondent to surrender to the local law enforcement 24           agency all firearms and ammunition in the respondent's custody or 25           control, or which the respondent possesses or owns. The time, place, 26           and manner of surrender shall be included in the order; or 27           2. Direct a law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the 1                   respondent to immediately search for and remove all firearms and 2                   ammunition in the respondent's custody or control, or which the 3                   respondent possesses or owns; and 4           (b) Direct a law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the respondent to 5           conduct a reasonable search of available records in order to:

6                   1. Identify adults living in the same household as the respondent; and 7                   2. Provide notice to those adults that the respondent is prohibited from 8                   having firearms in his or her custody or control while the order is in 9                   effect.

10       (2) At the time of surrender or removal, a law enforcement officer taking possession 11       of a firearm or ammunition pursuant to an extreme risk protection order shall 12       issue a receipt identifying all firearms and ammunition that have been 13       surrendered or removed and provide a copy of the receipt to the respondent. The 14       officer serving the order shall file the original receipt with the court that issued 15       the extreme risk protection order, and shall ensure that the law enforcement 16       agency retains a copy of the receipt.

17       (3) A court that has probable cause to believe a respondent to an extreme risk 18       protection order owns, possesses, or has in his or her custody or control firearms 19       or ammunition that he or she has failed to surrender pursuant to this section, or 20       has received or purchased firearms or ammunition while subject to the order, 21       shall issue a warrant describing the firearms or ammunition and authorizing a 22       search of any location where the firearms or ammunition are reasonably believed 23       to be and the seizure of any firearms or ammunition discovered pursuant to such 24       search.

26       READ AS FOLLOWS:

27       (1) Sixty (60) days before a one (1) year extreme risk protection order is set to expire,

1 a law enforcement agency holding any firearm or ammunition that has been 2 surrendered pursuant to the order shall notify the petitioner that the order is set 3 to expire. The notice shall advise the petitioner of the procedures for seeking a 4 renewal of the order pursuant to Section 5 of this Act.

5 (2) If an extreme risk protection order is terminated or expires and is not renewed, a 6 law enforcement agency holding any firearm or ammunition that has been 7 surrendered or removed pursuant to Section 6 of this Act shall notify the 8 respondent that he or she may request the return of the firearm or ammunition.
9 A law enforcement agency shall return any surrendered firearm or ammunition 10 requested by a respondent only after confirming, through a background check, 11 that the respondent is currently eligible to own or possess firearms and 12 ammunition.

13 (3) A respondent who surrendered any firearm or ammunition to a law enforcement 14 agency or had any firearm or ammunition removed pursuant to Section 6 of this 15 Act and who does not wish to have the firearm or ammunition returned or who is 16 no longer eligible to own or possess firearms or ammunition may sell or transfer 17 title of the firearm or ammunition to a licensed firearms dealer. The law 18 enforcement agency shall transfer possession of the firearm or ammunition to a 19 licensed firearms dealer only after the dealer has displayed written proof of 20 transfer of the firearm or ammunition from the respondent to the dealer and the 21 law enforcement agency has verified the transfer with the respondent.

22 (4) If a person other than the respondent claims title to any firearm or ammunition 23 surrendered or removed pursuant to Section 6 of this Act, and he or she is 24 determined by the law enforcement agency to be the lawful owner of the firearm 25 or ammunition, the firearm or ammunition shall be returned to him or her.

26 (5) Any firearm or ammunition which was surrendered by a respondent or removed 27 by law enforcement pursuant to Section 6 of this Act and that remains unclaimed

1 by the lawful owner shall be disposed of in accordance with KRS 16.220.

3 READ AS FOLLOWS:

- 4 (1) The court shall notify the Department of Kentucky State Police no later than one 5 (1) court day after issuing, renewing, dissolving, or terminating an ex parte or 6 one (1) year extreme risk protection order under Sections 1 to 11 of this Act.
- 7 (2) The information required to be submitted to the Department of Kentucky State 8 Police pursuant to this section shall include identifying information about the 9 respondent and the date the order was issued, renewed, dissolved, or terminated.
10 In the case of a one (1) year extreme risk protection order, the court shall include 11 the date the order is set to expire. The court shall also indicate whether the 12 respondent to the one (1) year extreme risk protection order was present in court 13 to be advised of the contents of the order or if the respondent failed to appear.
14 The respondent's presence in court shall constitute proof of service of notice of 15 the terms of the order.
- 16 (3) Within one (1) business day of service, a law enforcement officer who serves an 17 extreme risk protection order or the clerk of the court shall cause a copy of each 18 protection order issued under Sections 1 to 11 of this Act to be electronically 19 forwarded to the appropriate agency designated for entry of orders of protection 20 into the Law Information Network of Kentucky.
- 21 (4) All forms, affidavits, and protection orders issued or filed pursuant to Sections 1 22 to 11 of this Act which require entry into the Law Information Network of 23 Kentucky shall be entered on forms prescribed by the Administrative Office of the 24 Courts after consultation with the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet.
- 25 (5) The Department of Kentucky State Police shall immediately make information 26 about an ex parte or one (1) year extreme risk protection order issued, renewed, 27 or terminated pursuant to this chapter available to the National Instant Criminal

1       Background Check System for the purposes of firearm purchaser background
