JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment to Article X of the Constitution of Missouri, by adopting one new section relating to sales tax.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2020, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to Article X of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Article X, Constitution of Missouri, is amended by adopting one new section, to be known as Section 27, to read as follows:

Section 27. Because the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution contains the only enumerated right "necessary to the security of a free State", and because the state of Missouri believes that "the right of the people to keep and bear Arms" is necessary for our free society to exist, there shall be no state sales tax levied or imposed on any sales of any firearms or ammunition in this state.
