Section A. Chapter 1, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto one new section, to be 2 known as section 1.1000, to read as follows:

1.1000. 1. The exercise of any emergency power that the governor or any other 2 official may have under the Constitution of Missouri or state law that binds or regulates 3 the public is limited as follows:

4 (1) Notwithstanding any other law, emergency orders issued by state or local 5 officials that bind, curtail, or infringe on the rights of private parties shall be narrowly
6 tailored to serve a compelling public health or safety interest. Each order shall be limited

14 (3) To the extent allowed by the Constitution of Missouri and state law, only the 15 governor may issue emergency orders that infringe on constitutional rights in a nontrivial
16 manner. For the purposes of this section, constitutional rights include, but are not limited 17 to, the rights to travel, work, assemble, and speak; the freedom of religious exercise; the 18 nonimpairment of contract and property rights; freedom from unreasonable search and 19 seizure; and the freedom to purchase lawful firearms and ammunition. All such orders

20 shall expire after thirty days unless the governor terminates the order earlier or the 21 legislature enacts legislation granting the governor power to issue an extended order.

22           2. Nothing in this section grants additional emergency powers to the governor or 23 any other official.

24           3. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, state and local officials may issue 25 nonbinding recommendations and guidelines and may help coordinate public and private 26 action to prevent or respond to an emergency.
